

“LCO HAVE BEEN AN UNASSUMING BUT POPULAR FIXTURE IN THE CAPITAL’S TEEMING MUSICAL LIFE SINCE 1921. [THIS] CONCERT SHOWED AN ENSEMBLE WHICH IS WELL ABLE TO CARVE OUT A MORE AMBITIOUS NICHE.”

Martin Kettle
The Guardian

MAKE A LASTING IMPRESSION

Remember LCO in your Will

If you are passionate about the London Chamber Orchestra and value our commitment to providing quality music-making with the utmost passion, you can help secure our future by leaving us a gift in your Will.

Your gift will ensure not only the future of LCO’s future concert seasons but also underpin the vital work we undertake in the community, creating musical opportunities for people across a variety of backgrounds.

There are two key ways in which you can make a gift:

- Pecuniary bequest, i.e. a donation of a fixed sum of money or shares
- Residuary bequest, i.e. a gift of all or a percentage of your estate after all other payments and bequests have been made

However, if there is a specific area of LCO’s work that you wish to support, do let us know. We can then work with you to find the appropriate wording to ensure your gift has the impact you want and will remain relevant in the future.

If you are planning to make LCO a beneficiary of your estate, it is helpful for us if you are willing to let us know. We can then acknowledge your kindness and keep you up-to-date with our activities.

MAKING A WILL

Writing or amending a Will does not have to be complicated but we do recommend you consult a solicitor to ensure your Will accurately reflects your intentions. The following contains the information necessary for LCO to receive your gift:

I bequeath to the London Chamber Orchestra Trust, Registered Charity Number 297852, (state the % residue or sum of money you wish to give) and request without obligation that it be used at the discretion of the Trustees for immediate or future needs.